

January 14, 2010

We found Sealed With Love Designs while searching the Envelopments website for local retailers. We compared Sealed With Love against another local retailer and an online retailer. Sealed With Love's prices were competitive with both of these, but we chose to work with Kristen at Sealed With Love because even though she is an online retailer, I liked that I could meet with her in person if necessary. Compared to the local retailer, Kristen was much more organized and we were more comfortable with her in general - I was never nervous that something would go wrong. The invitation is an important piece to a wedding and we were dealing with a lot of other vendors at the same time so it was great knowing we didn't have to worry about tracking Kristen down or following up on anything!

Sealed With Love's design process from start to finish was great. When we originally submitted the request for a quote, Kristen got back to me right away. We had a couple face-to-face meetings, and we were able to schedule them fairly quickly, which we appreciated. We had a very good idea of what we wanted during our initial meeting, but we liked that Kristen did some initial information gathering (colors, location, etc) to get a feel for our event. She provided us with the different options and price breakdowns very quickly, and I liked the way it was presented - we were very cost-conscious, so it was helpful for me to know the itemized cost of each piece. We were able to see what items we could adjust to meet our budget. We had a very good idea of what we wanted before our meeting, but I was happy with the number of options she presented for our invitation design.

I would describe Sealed With Love's service as very personal and completely professional. As I said before, one of the primary reasons we chose to work with Kristen at Sealed With Love was because we knew we wouldn't have to worry about anything going wrong. From our first meeting, I could tell that Kristen was very organized and would treat our invitations as importantly as anyone else's. I was happy enough with the service at Sealed With Love that I recommended Kristen for my shower invitations before even seeing the final product of my wedding invitations!

We were so pleased with everything - we will definitely look to Sealed with Love Designs for future invitations!

- Erin & Michael
Buffalo, NY